

Eurodoc News

Eurodoc Policy Input for the European Higher Education Area

Eurodoc outlined a policy framework for the Bologna Process, focusing on doctoral training. “At the moment the voice of doctoral candidates is missing in Higher Education debates, and any discussion concerning Open Science, Research Assessment, Mobility in doctoral training”, says Giulia Malaguarnera, President of Eurodoc. Giulia calls for a ‘seat at the table’ during policy debates to advocate for early career researchers. Read more and find the policy input here.

Horizon Europe: Better Than Nothing, Less Than Needed

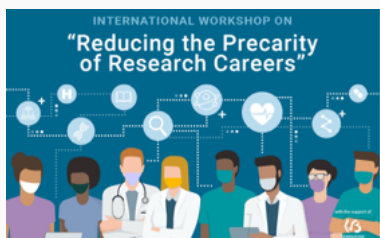

Eurodoc welcomed the deal on the 2021-2027 budget and on the COVID-19 recovery package. The grassroots campaign led by associations of early career researchers including Eurodoc mounted pressure to reverse the budget cuts to major EU programmes. Read more here.

---

Eurodoc Participated in the OECD International Workshop on Reducing the Precarity of Research Careers

Addressing the insecurity and career precarity of ECRs is essential to cultivating a resilient scientific ecosystem. OECD Global Science Forum recently undertook a project on reducing the precarity of research careers and organised a workshop to discuss the findings with other stakeholders to identify better policies for strategic planning. During the workshop, Eurodoc President Giulia presented as part of the session about working conditions and wellbeing of researchers. Find Giulia's presentation and others here.

---

'What Makes a PhD Candidate Complete Successfully?'

In her column for Eurodoc, Bärbel Tress, co-founder of Tress Academic, dissects the essential components of a successful PhD. Read more here.

---

Members News

---

10 Years of the Slovenian "Mentor of the Year Award"

Mentorship has an immense effect on the success and professional development of doctoral candidates. The Young Academy of Slovenia recognizes the mentorship practice and presents a yearly award to a mentor for their effort and contribution. In this column, the Young Academy of Slovenia gives an insight into the process and outlines the benefits of good mentorship. Read more here.

Stakeholder & Partner News

Open Research Europe is Ready for Submissions

The European Commission launched its Open Access publishing platform, Open Research Europe, which now accepts article submissions. ORE is expected to cover research in all fields and publishing on the platform will be cost-free for Horizon 2020 and Horizon Europe beneficiaries. Find the article guidelines here and more information about the publishing platform here.

---

Give Input to Euroscience Consultation on Diversity, Inclusion and Work Culture

The shared vision of major European stakeholders involves the scientific community acting as an engine for positive change. To fully realize this potential, diversity and inclusion within the scientific workplace is paramount. Euroscience has launched a quest to identify the focal points needed to initiate positive change through an open call for anonymous consultation. Join the movement to reshape the scientific work and community culture by sharing your experience here.

---

Upcoming Events

---

Open Science: Research Ethics

December 14-16

09:00-15:00 CET

SciLink offers an online course in ethics for researchers and provides a certificate that is equivalent to 1 ECTS credit. As an OEduverse project partner, Eurodoc has the opportunity to offer a free or subsidized spot to its members. Whilst registering, select Eurodoc as your affiliate to be considered for the spots with subsidized rates. Read more about the course content and register here.

---

Doctoral Education – 15 Years of Reform After Salzburg

December 09

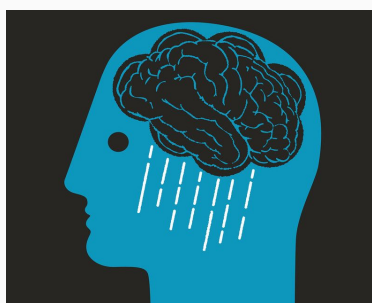

15:00-16:30 CET

Jointly organized by the PRIDE Network and UNIMED, this free webinar aims to discuss how the European doctoral education landscape evolved and pinpoint key professions for its function and continuity. Read more and register here.

---

Research Careers, Well-being and Mental Health

December 02

10:00 CET

The PRIDE Network invites two experts to address which aspects of the academic labor market pose a challenge to the mental health of ECRs, delve into the underpinning mechanisms at an individual level and to provide some stress management strategies. Find more information about the webinar and registration here.

umbrella organisation of national associations representing doctoral candidates and/or junior researchers in Europe.

You can subscribe or unsubscribe from this newsletter.

Copyright © 2020 Eurodoc, All rights reserved.

This email was sent to <<Email Address>>

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

Eurodoc · Rue d'Egmont 11 · Brussels 1000 · Belgium

